Parks Foundation Funds Senior Programs

Foundation provides $30,323 in support of programs benefiting Clark County seniors

VANCOUVER, Wash. – The Parks Foundation released more than $30,000 in support of senior programs through Vancouver-Clark Parks and Recreation over the past month. The funds, which were provided through the Theodore Barney Estate Endowment and the generosity of longtime senior advocate Merle Hogg will provide support to programs benefiting Clark County seniors. These programs include aquatics and fitness classes, special events and dances, health-focused seminars and programs, and senior support groups and clubs.

To learn more about Clark County senior programs please visit the Vancouver-Clark Parks and Recreation website at www.ci.vancouver.wa.us/parks-recreation/recreation/seniors/. For information about contributing to the program, please contact the Parks Foundation at 360-693-7050.

About the Parks Foundation

The Parks and Recreation Foundation of Vancouver and Clark County was established in 1999 to accept and administer donations, gifts and bequests for the enrichment and enhancement of our communities' parks, trails, and recreational programs.

The mission of the Parks Foundation is to raise funds through public and private partnerships for parks, trails, and recreational programs throughout Clark County. The Foundation is a 501 C 3 non-profit corporation and all gifts are tax deductible. The Foundation is governed by a board of directors comprised of local citizens who oversee, invest and administer donations made to the Foundation.
