July 11 Camas Meadows Concert Nets $4,165 for County Parks

Parks Foundation of Clark County beneficiary of the first of concert series

Perfect weather combined with the gospel-charged soul sound of crowd-pleasing headliner Linda Hornbuckle to bring in a record-breaking number of concert-goers to enjoy the music, food, and ambience of Camas Meadows as the 2012 Concerts for a Cause summer series opened on July 11. The concerts, which each week benefit a different local nonprofit, will continue through August 21. The Parks Foundation of Clark County was the designated beneficiary of the July 11. Funds raised will benefit parks, trails, and recreation programs throughout Clark County. More information about the concert series is available online at <http://www.parksfoundation.us/wp-content/uploads/2012/03/Concerts-for-a-Cause1.pdf> and photos of Tuesday's concert can be accessed at <https://www.facebook.com/media/set/?set=a.263151237132631.58994.244497368998018&type=1&refid=52>.

About the Parks Foundation

The Parks and Recreation Foundation of Vancouver and Clark County was established in 1999 to accept and administer donations, gifts and bequests for the enrichment and enhancement of our communities' parks, trails, and recreational programs.

The mission of the Parks Foundation is to raise funds through public and private partnerships for parks, trails, and recreational programs throughout Clark County. The Foundation is a 501 C 3 non-profit corporation and all gifts are tax deductible. The Foundation is governed by a board of directors comprised of local citizens who oversee, invest and administer donations made to the Foundation.
