Parks Foundation Elects New Board Members

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Carol Bua, Larry Kingsella, and Renee Wilson were appointed to the Parks Foundation Board of Directors at the Foundation's June 14 Annual Luncheon.

Carol Bua is the Communications Manager for Tidewater Barge Lines, she has a B.A. in Political Science from University of Washington and is currently completing a Masters' Program in Strategic Communications at the University of Oregon. Bua serves on the Foundation's Marketing Committee and will assist in building media relations and creating a strategic marketing and communication plan for the organization.

Larry Kingsella, President and Founder of DESIPrint, will provide the Foundation his expertise in small business development and organization and assist in developing innovative and creative marketing strategies for the organization. Kingsella currently serves as a member of the Foundation's annual golf tournament committee.

Renee Wilson, North American Market Manager for HB Fuller/Adalis, holds an associates' degree in journalism from Mt. Hood Community College and a bachelor's degree in Arts and Letters/Business from Portland State University. Wilson brings strong event and volunteer coordination skills to the Foundation and looks forward to spearheading the organization's inaugural Corporate Membership event this fall.

About the Parks Foundation

The Parks and Recreation Foundation of Vancouver and Clark County was established in 1999 to accept and administer donations, gifts and bequests for the enrichment and enhancement of our communities' parks, trails, and recreational programs.

The mission of the Parks Foundation is to raise funds through public and private partnerships for parks, trails, and recreational programs throughout Clark County. The Foundation is a 501 C 3 non-profit corporation and all gifts are tax deductible. The Foundation is governed by a board of directors comprised of local citizens who oversee, invest and administer donations made to the Foundation.
