Sonic Drive In donates $3,733 to Parks Foundation Donation to support recreational scholarship program

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Sonic Drive In donated $3,733 to the Parks Foundation of Clark County in support of the Everybody Plays! Recreation Scholarship program. The funds were earned through Sonic Drive In's Wacky Pack Donation program which rather than a toy, provided a donation to the scholarship program for every kids' meal sold during September 2012.

As the need for recreational scholarships for children from low income households continues to rise, the Parks Foundation has also seen a steady increase in community support for this very important program which provides recreational scholarships to children who would otherwise not have the opportunity to participate in the healthy, recreational activities offered through the parks and recreation department.

To learn more about how you can help support the scholarship program, please visit the Parks Foundation website at www.parksfoundation or contact the office 487-8370.
