Parks Foundation Appoints New Board Member

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Scott Campbell, Governmental and Community Affairs Manager for Waste Connections, Inc., was appointed to the Parks Foundation Board of Directors at their meeting on Tuesday, April 16. Scott will serve as a member of the Foundation’s Golf Tournament Planning Team and assist with securing sponsorship support for the organization’s Community Grant Program. Cheri Martin, Executive Director, said, “We are very pleased by Scott’s enthusiasm for the work of the Parks Foundation. He brings with him a wealth of experience and community connections that will serve as a huge benefit to our organization and assist us in better achieving our mission to raise funds for the parks, trails, and recreation programs of Clark County.”

About the Parks Foundation

The Parks and Recreation Foundation of Vancouver and Clark County was established in 1999 to accept and administer donations, gifts and bequests for the enrichment and enhancement of our communities’ parks, trails, and recreational programs.

The mission of the Parks Foundation is to raise funds through public and private partnerships for parks, trails, and recreational programs throughout Clark County. The Foundation is a 501 C 3 non-profit corporation and all gifts are tax deductible. The Foundation is governed by a board of directors comprised of local citizens who oversee, invest and administer donations made to the Foundation.
